PASTOR'S PAGE

Christmas is coming. In spite of Fred's health, in spite of the packing boxes, in spite of the sadness of goodbye to all of you – Christmas is coming with its joy and hope and love. We will celebrate with candles, with Lessons and Carols (Dec 15th), a pageant (Dec 22nd) and a wonderful Christmas Eve service (Dec 24th, 7pm). There will be a wonderful baptism, new members, and lots of joy.

Fred and I arrived on the first Sunday of Advent 14 years ago – so this is our 15th Advent, our 15th Christmas – and then we will retire and move to our house in Waldoboro, Maine. It is ten minutes from our grandchildren and their parents – and it will be great to be a bigger part of their lives.

I hope to be able to say goodbye to as many of you as possible – that is my work of this month, along with accompanying Fred in this next phase of his cancer treatment. If I do not lay eyes on you, know this: you are wonderful. This congregation is wonderful, and you have been a blessing to me and to Fred. I will say more about this through the Advent season and Christmastide, with Epiphany Sunday (January 5th) scheduled as my last Sunday.

But there is much to do between now and then, much that we hadn't planned for – and I hope to see you. Come to church if you can. Call if you can't. Home visits seem impossible, but perhaps we can chat on the phone.

So deck the halls, come to church to welcome the beginning of our story of faith, the beginning of the liturgical year – come and celebrate in anticipation and in joy.

With prayers for a joyous and heart-filled Christmas season,

Rev. Patricia

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION YOUTH NEWS

Confirmation continues to examine what each confirmand is confirming. This month the group will meet at 11:40am on Dec 1st, 8th and 15th.

Thanks to the confirmands and Deacons who gathered for an awesome day retreat on November 23rd. It was great getting to grow in relationship and learn together! A big thank you also to the confirmands for helping to serve and clean up the Thanksgiving Dinner, great work!

It's Christmas pageant time! Join us for worship December 22nd, when the members of the Sunday School (and maybe a few alumni) will retell the Christmas story with new vigor. It's an event not to be missed! Rehearsals will happen during Sunday School in December and on Saturday December 21st from 12-2pm. There may not be room in the inn but there's always room in the pageant, so come and join!

Advent Workshop

December 15th
@ 11:30am

Looking for a way to get into the Christmas spirit? The Board of Christian Education is sponsoring an Advent workshop on December 15th starting at 11:30am. There will be crafts and activities for all ages – paint an ornament, make a card for a church member in need, and enjoy some hot chocolate during Fellowship hour!

The Junior and Senior Youth Groups will pair up in December for two Christmas themed events. On the afternoon of the 21st, we'll be making a joyful noise as we go caroling to some of the older members of the congregation. Then on December 29th, we'll gather after church for a post-Christmas, Christmas celebration with lunch, a White Elephant, and a trip to see the lights at LaSalette.

DECEMBER HAPPENINGS

Notes from Murray

The rhythm of God. The power of music. The power of rhythm. It is astonishing how much music means to us in the grand scheme of things. It is in almost all aspects of public life. There are videos you can watch of famous movie scenes with the sound track taken out and to say it is dramatically different is a vast understatement. When a medium to large event is planned, usually music is involved, even if it is background music, but usually it takes a more central role. Some find music helps them focus. I remember distinctly a car ride when Eddie (my oldest son) was very young, probably less than 1 year old. My mom was visiting and she and I decided to take a drive with Eddie so that Nancy, my wife, could get a nap and some down time. Eddie was fine for a few minutes, but something was not right and he started crying, which soon became wailing. This lasted several minutes and we couldn't pull over. We were cooing and shushing as best as we could, but it didn't work. I decided to turn on our CD player in the car and music began to play. He calmed and soon was asleep, exhausted from his energetic crying. To this day, he finds music is soothing in many stressful situations. Some schools have started allowing students to play music during tests and other times of the day. It makes sense. So, if you are stressed or find that you are under the psychological weather in these darker days of fall and winter, try music. If you are praying, try music. It might help you to focus on the topics you set out to pray for. I know when I pray or meditate, my mind wanders a bit, but if music is around me, I have an easier time staying focused on and don't fall asleep as easily.

Our Annual Christmas Concert is almost here! December 22nd at 1:00 in our wonderful sanctuary. Tell a friend! The choir has been working very hard on some great Christmas music. The bells ensembles will ring and the youth choir will sing! For the adult choir and chancel ringers, there is a dress rehearsal on Saturday, December 21st from 10:00 to 1:00. The youth ensembles will also meet but timing will be announced as we get a bit closer. Check with your director.

The Adult Choir is going Caroling! December 14th, we will be going to Bay Pointe and Heights Crossing to sing. We are working on other destinations, too! If you have interest, we have a limited number of spots, but let me know. It is going to be great fun!

Sincerely,
Murray

Christmas Elves will be needed again this year to take gifts to families living with homelessness. Most are in area hotels – the gifts are from the Friends of the Homeless who find families to “adopt” homeless families, then they gather and wrap the gifts – we pick them up in Hingham and bring them to our church where our elves take over and deliver the gifts to the homeless families. If you would like to participate, usually the weekend before Christmas, sign up at the information counter.

Christmas Eve will be celebrated in one service at 7pm. Bring your family, bring your neighbors, bring your friends - it is a wonderful service.

ORGAN COMPLETION COMMITTEE

FROM THE ORGAN COMPLETION COMMITTEE

December Midday Music is on Wednesday, December 11th at 12:15 pm, featuring Brian Edwards as Guest Organist, with his program, “The Feeling of Christmas.” Mr. Edwards is the organist at St. Cyprian’s Episcopal Church, Roxbury. He hails from Antigua, where his musical journey started at the tender age of 5. Mr. Edwards attended Longy School of Music of Bard College where he earned a degree in organ.

Midday Music is free, open to the public, with donations accepted for the Organ Fund.

Thanks to all who enjoyed a meal at Chateau Restaurant, Stoughton

On Nov. 14th, about $160 was donated to the Organ Fund. Thanks to Chateau Restaurant for supporting community programs!

Purchase a Pipe: If you are considering any end of year donations to causes you care about, please include the Organ Fund. A donation of $270 represents one pipe in our total cost to complete the organ with the Choir Division. So far, we have raised $145,059 in donations and pledges which covers 543 pipes out of the total of 620 to be installed. Donations may be made online through the church website, via check, or as a Qualified Charitable Contribution from an IRA. And pledges to be paid in 2020 are still welcome. Thanks to all who have made this progress possible!

Organ Completion Committee: Deb Bowman, Eleanor Calvin, Ann Clark, Donna Costa (chairperson), Audrey Jones, Dot Quimby, Shirley Strangis or David Stuart.

The Church Book is coming: watch for sign-ups in early December to order your copy of a book of poetry, reflections, and essays on beliefs and faith written by about 30 of your fellow members! We anticipate the book, in paperback/trade book format, will cost $10. Sample copies can be seen in mid-December, delivery before Christmas. A wonderful stocking stuffer.

SERRV table will be open
Sunday, December 8th.

Young at Heart will pass on its Christmas party – we inadvertently scheduled it for the same time as the mid-day music concert, so we invite everyone to attend that lively organ concert. See you in the spring!

Food Pantry

If your own cupboard is bare, please remember you are ALWAYS welcome to help yourself to the food pantry - and for Christmas groceries I do have some $50 Market Basket cards to help out. Just ask (you can see RP in church, or ask Deana in the office).

Bold, Amazing Harvest Fair 2019!

CCC HARVEST FAIR

On May 19, 2019, at the annual meeting of Christ Congregational Church, the membership voted to approve the installation of a new roof on the building, and the installation of solar panels.

The roof was installed almost immediately and looks great.

The installation of 101 solar panels on the south facing roof has been done for a couple of months now. There was also extensive work done inside the building running cables, and installing electrical panels. Then came the process of waiting for inspections from the city, and then by National Grid. The final inspection was completed on Wednesday November 13th, and National Grid installed two new meters. The new meters are needed because during the late spring and summer and early fall, the meter will actually run backwards on clear days, as we generate more electricity than we use.

On Thursday November 14th, the "switch" was flicked and we finally started generating electricity.

As reported at the annual meeting last May, this solar panel system will significantly reduce our electric bill, as well as lessening our carbon footprint.

SNIPPETS

(Not Snippy! Just Zippy!)

All Hands on Deck of the Stewardship-Ship!
Yes, we are rocking the boat!

- * Oh, yes, we are really rocking the boat! Pledge forms continue to "roll in" as part of our Stewardship Sundays Rolling Pledge Collection. Lots of bold, increased pledging! As we move to the follow-up phase of our Pledge Experience, please continue to place your completed pledge forms in the offering plate on Sunday morning, deliver them to the church office, or mail them in. Thank you to one and all! We are being bold, indeed!
- * Blessed, peaceful, and Spirit-filled Advent to all! What a joy to live and serve in this Bold Beloved Community! We are bold in our giving, bold in our caring, and bold in our support of one another. And...TOGETHER, we share the Advent sense of preparation, waiting, and expectation...
- * "Like good stewards of the Manifold Grace of God, serve one another with whatever gifts each of you has received. Be generous with these different gifts God gave you, passing them around so that all get in on it. That way, God's bright presence will be evident in everything through Jesus. Glory and praise to God! Encores to the end of time! Oh yes, and Amen!" 1 Peter 4: 10 - 11

The second Sunday of Advent is December 8th, and the Missions Committee will have 2 Christmas Trees on display! We invite folks to sign a Christmas card and hang it on the Christmas Card Tree. The annual Hat/Scarf/Mitten Christmas Tree will be downstairs. Please consider decorating this tree with your contributions; all donations will be donated to local homeless and families in need.

A Note from the Moderator...

If you attended our congregational meeting on November 17, you may remember my reflections on our budget. I want to reiterate what I said then and solicit your involvement in our prioritization process over the next year.

As we have for a number of years now, we again face a budget shortfall, requiring us to spend down our endowment principle in order to make up the difference between our income and our expenses. Obviously, this is not financially sustainable for the long run.

Your church officers and all boards and committees spent significant time putting together our 2020 budget. We did not ignore our shortfall. In fact, we realized some savings in expenses and some projected increases in income. However, on balance, because of our timely decision to invest a little more in our children and youth and to use a more conservative standard for projecting investment returns, our net shortfall was similar to years past—about $100,000.

What became readily apparent to us is that we cannot erase that shortfall by shaving a little here and a little there off what we spend. It will require some innovative revenue-generation, or some creative cost savings, or some major reductions in some aspects of our program, or most likely, a combination of all three. We felt like we should make decisions about specific reductions thoughtfully, according to our mission priorities, and with well-facilitated congregational discussion and input. Furthermore, we believe it would have been premature to make such decisions—decisions that could have long-lasting ramifications—when we are in the midst of a pastoral transition, including our on-going visioning and strategic pathways processes. We elected to base our long-term budget decisions on the results of those yet-to-be-completed processes.

So, our commitment is to plan and facilitate an intentional, disciplined, and transparent process that will help us as a congregation to make faithful and wise financial decisions. We will be counting on you to contribute to that process. We don't already have a tentative plan. It really will be genuinely open. And we don't want to focus just on cuts. We want to explore ideas for increasing revenue. For example, how could we better use our building? How can we increase pledges? We want to explore ideas for saving on expenses by becoming more cost effective. For example, how much will we save in energy bills by having installed solar? If you have ideas about either our revenue or cost-effectiveness, please let us know. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could eliminate the shortfall by creatively bringing in more income and becoming more cost effective, without having to cut programs?

If after working on those ideas to increase revenue and improve cost-effectiveness, we still have a shortfall, we will very consciously consider what our budgetary priorities should be, invest in those priorities, and let go of some aspects of our life together that we collectively deem less important. Maybe we'll decide to carry out the letting-go part gradually over, let's say, three years. Who knows, maybe we'll even decide to spend more for a limited time period on designated areas believing that in the long run that will make us more sustainable. All possibilities are on the table.

It won't be easy. However, it's necessary and could actually be exciting and renewing if we do it together and we do it fairly. Thanks.

~Barry Shelley
