PASTOR'S PAGE

Greetings all,

How are you church family? This has been a strange and difficult time for all of us; something that has only felt more true as this period of staying home and social distancing has extended. We all react differently to stressful situations and it's normal to be experiencing a whole range of emotions. Even if you're feeling fine, please know that I'm here and available to talk or support you. Additionally, if you are struggling financially in this time, I encourage you to reach out to me. We are called as a community to care for one another, always and especially in times such as these.

Thank you all for doing just that over these past weeks. I continue to hear about cards and care packages, masks and supply deliveries, phone calls and safe-distance check-ins happening all over the place. You are all getting creative and finding new ways to be the church!

For the time being, we will continue to worship and gather for fellowship hour online. We are pleased to continue partnering with Rev. Mary Perry and the congregation of First Congregational Church of Stoughton. You can access the service online by going to our website (<https://brocktonucc.org/live-videos/>). A Nearly Weekly email will be sent each week on Saturday with the order of worship and links to both the service and Virtual Fellowship zoom call.

If you are not online, there is an option to call in and hear the service. If you'd like to call in on Sunday mornings, dial the number below and when asked, enter the Meeting ID, followed by pound. If you are then asked for a Participant ID, just enter pound again. You will then be able to listen to the service.

Call in Number: +1 646-876-9923
Meeting ID: 549 066 082

Finally, this month, Christ Congregational Church will be celebrating it's 40th anniversary! In May of 1980, four UCC churches in Brockton - First Parish Congregational Church, Waldo Congregational Church, South Congregational Church, and Porter Evangelical Church voted to consolidate and form Christ Congregational Church, UCC. Guided by the UCC motto... that they may all be one... they chose to embark in faith on a bold experiment of joining together to be the church. May we continue to live out our faith, inspired by our shared history.

Blessings to you all,
Ann-Marie Illsley, Bridge Pastor

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION YOUTH NEWS

YOUTH GROUP

The Youth Group will be meeting for online check-ins and fun on Tuesday, May 5th and 19th from 3-4:30pm. A zoom invite will be sent out by email and Remind.

GRADUATION

Are you (or your child or grandchild) graduating this spring? If so, let us know so we can celebrate them in June! We are assembling a list of graduates (high school and higher education). To be included please contact the church office.

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

Applications are being received for college scholarships, to be awarded in June. If you are studying post-high school (college or trade school) we would love to support and recognize your efforts. Applications are due on June 1st and may be submitted to the office. Please contact Ann-Marie Illsley (pastor@brocktonucc.org) for more information.

HOMEWORK HELPERS

Members of Christ Congregational Church are facilitating an effort to help families with school aged children, during this difficult time.

- If you are a family with a student in grades 1 through 10, you can match up your child or children with a Homework Helper to work with them, once or more per week.
- If you are a high school or college student, or an adult member of the church who would like to help a student and their family, you could become a Homework Helper.
- An email will be sent to families on our Board of Christian Education list with more information on how to become part of this Homework Helper Network.

*High school & college students, who need community service hours, this would certainly work!

For more info please contact Donna Costa, Lisa Sparling or Michelle Young-Ferguson

WORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Interested in participating in online worship? The worship team is hoping to include members of the congregation each week during worship. If you're interested in being part of worship one week, please reach out to Ann-Marie (pastor@brocktonucc.org).

Notes from Murray And Songs Of The Earth

As we pass over Earth Day this year in the midst of quarantine, I am reminded of many of my favorite songs of nature; its power and beauty. Do you have a favorite poem about nature? "I think that I shall never see A poem lovely as a tree" or something else?

Some lovely music has been composed to the idea of nature. We are passing from winter to spring. Here is a beautiful song about landscapes of the frozen north by a collegiate women's choir in New Zealand. Because the text is so drawn out by the music, it is hard to understand the specific words, but imagine glaciers and polar landscapes. Another poem that takes us into spring and Easter is by E.E. Cummings - I thank You God for most this amazing day; for the leaping greenly spirits of trees and a blue true dream of sky; and for everything which is natural which is infinite which is yes (I who have died am alive again today, and this is the sun's birthday; this is the birth day of life and of love and wings: and of the gay great happening illimitably earth). I encourage you all to listen to an amazing performance of Dan Forrest's composition to the same text here. It will last a glorious 8 1/2 minutes. I love this poem and what it signifies; spring, life, resurrection, the beauty and power of nature. As we pass Earth Day, these songs can be reminders of nature's beauty in other areas besides our towns or states. Our Earth feels so small to us right now, but it is truly vast, expansive, and beautiful.

At the time I write this article, we (Sylvia, Alisa and I) are preparing a familiar anthem by Harold Friedell, "Draw Us In the Spirit's Tether." The first verse of text says: 'Draw us in the spirit's tether, for when humbly in Thy name two or three are met together, Thou art in the midst of them.' Even in the midst of social distancing and uncertainty, we can feel the presence of the Holy Spirit, God and each other. Just because we are miles away and looking at a screen doesn't mean that we are not together. Surely, it feels different in so many ways, but God is here. Are we still able to be the church? Yes. We are the church. When we come together for our Sunday services or for remote meetings, or for other social events, we are together as a community. But oh, what a day that will be when we all get together in our sanctuary!

One item of business is the Talent Show. Our previously scheduled talent show needs to be canceled, but have no fear, we will have it! Drum roll please!!! bldldldldldldldldldldldldldldldldldld.

ANNOUNCING.....The Christ Congregational Church ZOOM Talent Show! Karaoke songs, instrumental music, dances, poems, jokes, stories, special skills, special talents (think "Stupid Human Tricks) and anything else you might want to do. Please email me if you are interested in performing. music@brocktonucc.org. The date will be June 14th at 2:00pm.

So, on that note, I bid farewell. Stay safe and happy,
Murray

P.S. Here is another song about spring that is fun and jazzy.

ORGAN COMPLETION COMMITTEE

GIVING THANKS, SHARING SORROWS, LIFTING HOPES

- We are thankful for the audience members and guest organists who have made the Christ Church Pipe Organ Series such a success
- We are thankful for all those who have donated funds, encouraged the committee and prayed for a faithful outcome for Project PIPES
- We are saddened by the loss of life during this pandemic and the loss of personal connection for so many
- We are saddened by the loss of income for many workers, including so many musicians whose concerts and recitals had to be cancelled
- We are saddened that work on the Choir Division for our organ is on hold, since when all non-essential businesses in Massachusetts were ordered to close, that included our Organ Builder, Czelusniak & Dugal. The shop is awaiting guidelines for after May 18, 2020.
- We lift up our hope that the "new normal" that emerges after this period of illness and confinement will enable much wonderful music to be shared again
- We look forward to the completion of the choir division for our Austin Organ—perhaps delayed into the beginning of 2021 due to business closures.

POSTPONED!!!

OUR YARD SALE NEEDS TO WAIT UNTIL LATER

More time for some extra Spring Cleaning? If you're finding some items that no longer fit your décor you still have opportunities to pass them on.

Once it's safe to do so we will reschedule the Yard Sale.

So while you're cleaning, keep us in mind for the future event where you can host your own table or donate items for the Church Fair tables.

Blessings to you and your family and loved ones while we are physically apart but together, spiritually united.

From the Mission Committee

Hello fellow Church Members.

Trying times eh? Stuck in the house? What to do?

While we all are hunkered down to keep ourselves and families safe from this virus, remember to keep busy. How? Cleaning out items no longer needed, for the November Church Fair! Amazing what we can accumulate over the years! I've been in my house 50 years this May....and believe me a few dumpsters could be filled! So, clean out, now is the perfect time!

Missions continues with cleaning out the food pantry we have at the Church for fear that some food might go past the use by date. So it will be given to Charity Guild Food Bank as stated in the nearly weekly email a few weeks ago.

For now, stay active, run around the house a few times a day, don't nibble too much, and if you have pets, give them some time alone, they are confused too!

The Mission Committee is asking the members of our Congregation if they know of any organizations that are in some sort of dire need of funds because of the current situation concerning the virus?

The Mission Budget is flexible in that we do not have a specific amount we have to donate on a yearly basis. If an urgent need arises then we can move funds from one group to another.

Please let any of the Mission Committee Members know your ideas or the Church office.

Be safe, keep away from each other and Pray that we survive!

Our Food Pantry

On Friday April 30th, George Manoogian stopped by the church to pick up the food from our church's food pantry. George stayed in his car while I loaded all the boxes and bags that were filled with food into his trunk. George then delivered the food to the Charity Guild Food Bank. People were there to unload for George so he did not need to come in contact with anyone. He noticed a line of people there waiting to pick up food donations, so we can rest assured that our donation helped.

These are tough times for so many. We are all dealing with different levels of hardship. If you are able to donate food items to our church's food bank, that would be great. Please call before you come so we can meet you outside to take your donations. When it starts to fill up, we will then deliver it to a needy charity. If you can donate food directly to one of the food banks in town, that would surely be appreciated. If you do not have food to donate, sending a check, if you are able, to any of these wonderful and much needed charities will help them feed the many.

Thank You!

Dear Board Of Deacons and Others,

Thank you so much for the tulip and greetings at Easter.

I have never been more proud than now when I see how much our leaders, staff as well as lay leaders have stepped up to continue our connection to the church and our friends. This has been so very important to me as I am sure it has to many others of our homebound and elderly.

I wish you all a pleasant spring and summer and wish it will be soon that we will return to our blessed sanctuary.

In Christian Love!

Shirley Bamford

Thank you for the beautiful pot of pink tulips and the communion kit that I received for Easter. It brightened my day and has been a joy to see the tulips open. My thank you gift to my church community is a poem I wrote.

The Gardener

Life's garden:

A place for nurturing

Tender seed cells

And witnessing their transformation

Into the living examples

Of trust and beauty

That give meaning to life

And offer the world a future and a hope.

The product of the gardener:

The caring smiles, produced by "tulips"
make a smile,

Which lifts the world

As each is reflected and reproduced

At each encounter with humanity.

COMMON THREADS QUILT GUILD

The guild meetings are still in suspension. We are all working on projects at home. I am making masks for family members in the medical field and have finished up a lap quilt and 5 NICU quilts for the guild.

I have started a red and white quilt for myself. My fabric stash is large and other supplies are available on line. There is more than enough to do but I really MISS seeing people in person. That will happen, just not sure when. Stay home, keep sewing and wash your hands.

Greetings in the name of Jesus! Blessings to all!

- ◆ And now for a very important question: How are you? Really, how are you? If you are doing ok, please continue to use your God-given gifts of Time, Talent, and Treasure to take care of yourself and to reach out to others during this time of distancing. Reach out in Jesus' name! If you are facing challenges or are feeling overwhelmed, please call Deana in the Church office at (508)586-3022 and Ann-Marie at (508) 577-2607. Your Christ Church family is ready to work with you to assist you, but we need to know what we can do. We are all in this together! We are the Body of Jesus at work in the world!
- ◆ Whether you are participating in our wonderful weekly online worship "from near" or "from afar" please remember that we are all TOGETHER in spirit and in the Holy Spirit! It is interesting how modern technology somewhat blurs the meaning/impact of physical distance. Even though we long to be together or close to one another physically, we are constantly reminded that we are really never very far apart. We continue to be the Body of Christ, finding new and creative ways to be so! Praise God!
- ◆ The CCC Stewardship Committee strongly encourages continued financial support of our beloved Christ Congregational Church, UCC! Whether we are near or far, we are all very close, indeed! Let's support one another by supporting our church! We encourage all of us to be diligent in our monetary giving, if possible. Please mail in regular pledged checks to the church at 1350 Pleasant St in Brockton MA 02301 or give online by visiting brocktonucc.org and using the Donate/Donate Today buttons.
- ◆ Our Loving God has showered us with amazing gifts of Time, Talent, and Treasure and the ability to use these gifts in creative and wonderful ways! Please, let's continue reaching out to others in this time of confinement, staying connected, even in our distancing!
- ◆ This Beloved Community of Christ Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, is alive and well and adapting and growing! Praise and thanks to God! Let the Holy Spirit swoop and soar!

Blessings, peace, love, strength, and joy to all!

So, what is going on inside and outside the building ?

Although the doors are officially closed for the time being, there is a lot going on at the church. I did a deep, outside spring cleaning on the grounds. The leaves and branches have been picked up, and the grounds have been raked. The grass is starting to green up and the flowers are blooming.

Inside, every square inch has been cleaned and sanitized. From floors, to tables, to furniture, and the bathrooms, everything has been wiped down with a mixture of bleach and disinfectant.

Currently, all the windows are being washed. I have been in this building since it was built and I do not remember the windows ever being washed. The inside is done and the outside is to follow, if it ever warms up and stops raining!

The floor in Fellowship hall is the next big project. I am getting ready to start stripping the old finish. The floor is old, and showing signs of wear. A good stripping, cleaning and waxing should help to bring new life into it.

As I perform one task, another always seems to show itself to me. Although this is a very difficult time for all of us, I am enjoying getting to do so many projects that I do not normally have time to do. I look forward to the hub-bub we normally experience here at Christ Church. I miss the Wednesday night dinners and the fellowship they inspire. At some point all will return to a "new" normal, and we will all be able to enjoy each other in person, in our beautiful building.

Peace,
Bill Cockshaw

The Transition Team

The Transition Team has been busy working behind the scenes continuing to work with our Consultant, Rev. Susan Townsley on the Strategic Pathways that we might follow in the months to come, informed by our Congregational retreat and many focus groups from the fall. We were pleased to present a proposal to the Council at our February Council retreat, and are working closely with them to identify a plan to present our recommendations to the Congregation.

The Interim Search Committee has concluded the Interim Pastor search. It was recently announced that Rev. Ann-Marie Illsley has agreed to serve as our Bridge Pastor while we continue actively searching for a Settled Pastor. For questions or pastoral concerns, please contact Ann-Marie or call the church office. We are grateful and delighted to have Ann-Marie's competent and compassionate leadership during these trying times.

The Settled Pastor Search Committee is forging ahead with our work. Our Profile was posted in early April, and we immediately began receiving Pastoral Profiles. We are carefully reviewing each profile for suitability, keeping in mind the Core Values and Strategic Pathways endorsed by our congregation. We have begun the initial interview process as we embark on the discernment process for the settled Pastor who will best meet our needs.

Prayerfully submitted-

Sue Koza, Co-Chair, Pastoral Search Committee

A note from the Moderator.....

These are strange and challenging times. While I believe our church has weathered the coronavirus crisis relatively well so far, some of our members and friends have been affected by COVID-19 and/or the isolation, anxiety, and uncertainty with which we live each day. I hope and pray for your health, your safety, and your strength.

As you probably know, our area, Brockton in particular, has been hit especially hard by COVID-19, in large part due to conditions that come with lower incomes—the need to continue to work where physical distancing is difficult; the need to take public transportation; the more crowded living spaces. I also pray for the health, safety, and strength of our neighbors in our city and surrounding towns.

As our church continues to function “remotely,” it’s especially difficult to maintain good communication. So, let me take advantage of this Courier space to keep you informed of a few matters of importance:

1. As I announced last week in a Nearly Weekly, we are blessed to have Ann-Marie Illsley as our full-time Bridge Pastor until a new settled senior pastor begins their ministry with us, whenever that may be. In many ways we’re just affirming what we already have had amongst us: the strong, caring, and creative pastoral leadership Ann-Marie is providing. We’re grateful that she is here and that she is willing to step in to this more demanding role in the midst of such challenging circumstances. We ask you to join the Council in committing ourselves to “being the church” by supporting Ann-Marie as our Bridge Pastor.
2. That support includes recognizing and monitoring potential workload challenges as Ann-Marie adds to what she was already doing as Acting Associate Pastor. In that light, some laypersons will continue to fulfill a few responsibilities that often would fall, at least in part, to our pastor. Please take note of the following:

With regards to....	Please contact...
Staff coordination and meetings; coordination with human resources consultant	Barry Shelley, with Leo Larson and the Personnel Committee
Building space use, including rentals	Leo Larson and the Board of Finance and Property
Safe Church, incident emergency/report	Ann-Marie Illsley, Doug Anderson, Pat Illsley
WOVOS	Murray Kidd and the Board of Music
Publication updates	Web: Leo Larson Other: Deana Colby

3. Like you, your church leaders don’t know when we’ll be able to starting gathering face-to-face again. We can assure you that when that becomes a more viable option, we will weigh all factors very carefully before taking such steps, and when we think we’re ready to invite people back into the church, we will take every precaution to assure we do so as safely as possible. We’ll also try to provide options for those who are not yet ready to return that will allow them to continue to connect remotely. Finally, of course, we will let you know details through various channels of communication.
4. The Church Council and all Boards and Committees continue to meet monthly by Zoom video-conferencing to do the work of the church. For example, after a short delay due to the crisis, the Council is now following up on work done during our February retreat to address long-term budget concerns.
5. Usually the church would hold a congregational meeting in May. Due to the situation the Council voted to postpone that meeting until June 14, reasoning that a face-to-face meeting is more likely in June than in May (though that’s uncertain for June as well). We hope to go ahead with a congregational meeting on June 14, even it’s done remotely via computer and telephone.
6. One of the most important parts of that meeting’s agenda will be the approval of church officers and board and committee members. If you are interested in serving in such a position, please contact members of the Nominating Committee: Doug Anderson, Judy Copley, Adam Mitchell, and Dave Wilcox.
7. Finally, please join us for virtual worship every Sunday morning at 9:55 and virtual fellowship hour immediately following that service. Over 100 persons have been participating in workshop and fellowship hour attendance has been averaging about 25 persons. We’d love to have you join us for either or both.
